

Wynnwith Flight Crew

Established and Experienced Recruitment Partner

Wynnwith Flight Crew is a division of the Wynnwith Group who have worked in the field of aviation for the last 35 years. Our long standing relationships with many passenger airlines, cargo operators and corporate/VIP organisations result in us being considered a preferred supplier for First Officers, Captains, Line Trainers & TRI/TRE's together with a variety of management positions. This in turn enables us to offer varied and rewarding career opportunities to our extensive candidate database.

Proven Experience

The Flight Crew Division has grown substantially over the past two years, quietly excelling in its specialist field, placing an increasing number of pilots, of all levels of experience, with our international client base. We are supported by the latest technology, ensuring we can search our extensive database quickly and accurately for appropriately type rated candidates, of the required calibre, for your specific assignment.

Flexible and Adaptable Service

Whether your requirement is for a short or long-term contract, or a permanent placement, our dedicated account management team will work closely with you. From placement of relevant advertising, interviewing and short-listing candidates, checking qualifications and experience via referencing, and attending your interview process, everything is done to ensure a cost effective recruitment solution.
